CHRIST OUR LIGHT
INNISHMORE

ST. MARY & ST. JOHN
STATION ROAD

SUNDAY 21ST JANUARY 2001
THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Church Unity Sunday

We come together on Sunday to listen to the scriptures and to have them explained. Here it is God who speaks to us through his Son. His Spirit continues to work on us to inspire us with his message of freedom and encouragement for all in need.

SEASON OF REASON

People come into your life for a reason, a season or a lifetime. When you figure out which it is, you know exactly what to do. When someone is in your life for a REASON, it is usually to meet a need you have expressed outwardly or inwardly. They have come to assist you through a difficulty, to provide you with guidance and support, to aid you physically; emotionally or spiritually.

They may seem like a godsend, and they are. They are there for the reason you need them to be. Then, without any wrongdoing on your part or at an inconvenient time, this person will say or do something to bring the relationship to an end.

Sometimes they die. Sometimes they walk away. Sometimes they act up or out and force you to take a stand. What we must realise is that our need has been met, our desire fulfilled; their work is done. The prayer you sent up has been answered and it is now time to move on.

When people come into your life for a SEASON, it is because your turn has come to share, grow or learn. They bring you an experience of peace or make you laugh. They may teach you something you have never done. They usually give you an unbelievable amount of joy. Believe it! It is real! But, only for a season.

Lifetime relationships teach you lifetime lessons; those things you must build upon in order to have a solid emotional foundation. Your job is to accept the lesson, love the person/people (anyway); and put what you have learned to use in all other relationships and areas of your life. It is said that love is blind, but friendship is clairvoyant.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The people were in tears (First Reading)

On hearing this reading we may feel that the people were being over dramatic. Are they not, however, closer to the truth than we?

In the Scriptures, the Creator of the Universe speaks to us.

Is it not strange that we can often be so unmoved and unaffected by what we know to be the word of God?

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRIEST

My dear friends in Christ,
let us present our prayers with confidence to the Lord.

READER

For all those who listen with respect to God's word, that they put it into practice each day.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who read God's word in the Liturgy, that their ministry may be marked by reverence and love.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For all who gather to worship
God today in many communities that the Spirit may unite all Christians into one Church.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For the sick and suffering, especially those we have been asked to pray for,
that healing and new strength may be given them.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK Second Week in Ordinary Time

21 Sunday Neh. 8:2-6, 8-10. Ps. 18. 1 Cor. 12:12-30. Lk. 1:1-4:4:14-21. Lect 1:841
The teaching of the Church on the Liturgy of the Word is expressed in these texts. Jesus states that the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled in himself: so the Scripture word is actualized for us each time it is proclaimed in church. Christ is really present in his Word. That Word challenges us to a renewal of life, as the people rediscovered their identity when Ezra read the law to them. Those who serve as ministers of the Word will find the joy of the Lord to be their strength.

22 Monday Heb. 9:15. 24-28. Ps. 97. Mk. 3:22-30 Lect II:27
We now live in the new covenant times when Jesus has conquered sin. But we await the final consummation when he returns in glory to claim us for himself.

23 Tuesday Heb. 10:1-10. Ps. 39. Mk. 3:31-35. Lect II:29
In the story of God's relationship with his people there is an often repeated warning about sacrifices which are purely external. In Christ we have the supreme expression of conformity to God's will in a sacrificial life.

24 Wednesday Heb. 10:11-18. Ps. 109. Mk. 4:1-20. Lect II:31
The parable of sowing and harvest tells us that God's glorious kingdom is still to come. God's kingdom will surely come despite the various difficulties experienced by those who work for it. We are to prepare by an upright life.

25 Thursday Acts. 22:3-16. or Acts 9:1-22. Ps. 116. Mk. 16:15-18. Lect II:928
St. Paul preached the power of God at work in the lives of each one of us. His own conversion shows that power in his life. Out of a persecutor God made a preacher and teacher of the peoples. Paul never ceased to express thanks and wonder for this grace. But he still prayed for perseverance.

26 Friday 2 Tim. 1:1-8 or Tit. 1:1-5. Lk. 10:1-9. Lect II:931

27 Saturday Heb. 11:1-2, 8-19. Ps. Lk. 1:69-75. Mk. 4:35-41. Lect II:37
It was for faith that our ancestors were commended and that faith is praised in Abraham. Jesus expects faith in his disciples.

SAINTS THIS WEEK

Monday 22nd - St. Vincent, died 304, deacon of the church of Saragossa, Spain. Martyred in Valencia after prolonged torture.

Wednesday 24th - St. Francis de Sales, 1567-1622, bishop of Geneva, founder of the Visitation Sisters. He worked with gentleness and love to rebuild the Catholic faith after the Reformation. Patron saint of writers, editors and journalists.

Friday 26th - Sts. Timothy and Titus, were close to St. Paul as followers and later in their work with him. Tradition makes Timothy the first bishop of Ephesus. And from Paul's advice to him to take some wine for his stomach's sake, he has been invoked as a patron in cases of stomach complaint.

Saturday 27th - St. Angela Merici, 1474-1540, founder of the Ursulines, devoted herself to Christian education based on love, kindness with firmness, and concern for the individual.

Recipe for Living

Life may not be a piece of cake

When we haven't the dough to rise!

But it will never be
as flat as a pancake,

If we remember to add

A spoonful of sugar
to sweeten our desserts.

BALLINCOLLIG BASKETBALL CLUB
NOTES AND FIXTURES

LADIES RESULTS:

Our Jun I Ladies kept their unbeaten record when on Thursday 11th they beat Blackpool Credit Union in what was an easy win for this strong Ballincollig side. They are top of their league and their coach, Greg Twomey, is very pleased with the hard work and commitment they put in and by their performance and progress.

There were four home games on Saturday night in B.C.S. the first of which was the Un-14 Girls against Crosshaven. While they did not win, it was a much better performance by the girls and they played more confidently losing by only 10pts.

Our Un-16 Ladies also faced Crosshaven in their match. It was a very close and exciting game with the lead constantly changing sides. By full time it was level and heading for extra time. Both teams fought hard but Crosshaven just managed to get that vital basket and won the game by a one point lead, the Ballincollig girls were slightly disappointed and felt they did not play up to their normal standard.

The Un-18 Ladies also lost their game against Glanmire B due to small team turn out. Ballincollig were outplayed from the start and without fresh players were unable to make any great impact on their opponents.

Our Inter Ladies suffered the same fate in their game against Mallow on Saturday 13th. Due to other commitments the team were short vital players and Mallow side took full advantage of a very tired Ballincollig side.

MENS RESULTS:

The Men's Div. 2 Meeting with the Blue Demons was a good, fast-paced game in Parochial on Friday last. Ballincollig showed their strength from the start and left the Demons in no doubt as to who was in charge. This win keeps them in their well-deserved running for the league title.

Our Un-17 Tea, showed their superiority over their Limerick opponents on Friday 12th when they played in Dooradoyle. The Ballincollig lads played very confidently and took the victory easily.

A word of congratulations to the Un-15 Boys who got to the Semi-Finals of the John Coughlan Tournament, which took place on Saturday 13th in the Parochial Hall. They faced some tough opposition in getting to the semi-finals and in the end were very unlucky to be beaten by a very small margin by Blue Demons. Well Done for the hard work lads.

First off on Saturday were the Un-11 Boys who travelled to Skibbereen. After a slow start, Ballincollig began to get warmed up and by the end of the first half had gone into the lead. The second half saw Ballincollig really come into their own and after some great scoring by Adrian O'Sullivan, Emmet Murphy and Daniel O'Sullivan, we had pulled away to a convincing 23 to 16 lead, mentions also for Neil O'Sullivan and Jonathon Knowles. Our Un-13 Team were not so lucky in their game against Skibb due to the strength of their opponents. Ballincollig were unable to make any impact on Skibb, who are always very strong in this group.

A NIGHT PRAYER

When I call on your name, O Lord,
You give ear to the sound of my voice.
Now let your face shine upon me.

In the troubles of the past,
You took note of my affliction.
Swiftly you brought me relief
Have pity on me now, hear my prayer.

Whatever of worth lies within,
Has come from your bounteous hands,
Do not allow what you bestowed to perish!

Remind me constantly,
That I truly belong to the Lord;
That he feels for me when I suffer.
O foolish heart of mine, calm down,
Renew you reliance on God.

You are the only good.
Our hearts are destined
To rest in you alone
Driving out fear,
Restoring our peace.
Reveal to us the sunshine of your favour.

A sigh is heard,
From a people who yearn for the light of better days.
They cry out: "Who will show us good things?"

And yet, I have come across more joy
In my companionship with you,
Than in rich possessions.
Even as I lie down, sleep comes gently,
And, with sleep, tranquillity.
With the Lord on my side,
I am never alone.

'As soon as I lie down, I fall asleep in peace, for you alone, O Lord, will keep me safe.' Psalm 4:9

Reflection from Psalm 4
