Feast of All Saints Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

On Tuesday next, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints - both the canonised and the uncanonised. In St John's vision of heaven, (Book of the Apocalypse), he sees: "a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language standing before the Throne of God". In the First Letter of St John, he reminds us of the great love of God who already has chosen to call us His children. "What we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed, we will be like Him, because we will see him as he is." Among the uncanonised are people we knew in life who love us and are interceding for us. We thank God for these ordinary people who have been faithful witnesses to the love of God by living out the message of the Gospel during their life. Even though they too were sinners and experienced trials and temptations like ourselves, yet their faith, hope and love sustained them on their pilgrim journey. They are now enjoying the glory and happiness of being face to face with God.

In the Preface for All Saints, we pray: 'All-powerful and ever living God, around your throne, the saints, our brothers and sisters, sing your praise for ever. Their glory fills us with joy, and their communion with us in your Church gives us inspiration and strength as we hasten on our pilgrimage of faith, eager to meet them'. Let us reflect on all those who have inspired us and who have been examples to us of what it means to be a Christian. We thank God for the gift of these people. Perhaps it is also an opportunity for ourselves to reflect on what it means to be a saint! How do we image Christ for others? Do people experience something of God's love and compassion when they encounter us? Do we make the world a better and holier place through our words and deeds? Holiness is not so much about what we do but rather with how much love we do it.

On Wednesday, we commemorate the death of our loved ones. In the Preface for Christian death, we pray: 'Lord, for your faithful people, life is changed, not ended'. Death is not an end. For the Christian, death is a door opening to admit his or her soul into eternal life. As we celebrate the sacred memory of all those dear to us, we pray for their eternal joy and peace.

"God, our creator and redeemer, by your power Christ conquered death and returned to you in glory. May all our loved ones who have gone before us in faith share his victory and enjoy the vision of your glory for ever."

Sr. Colette

Reflection for Parents

Few people can humble us as quickly as our children. They might embarrass us by their public behaviour, or they might make reference to our age or choice in clothing style. What will our response tell them about us? When we try to maintain our position of authority over them, we are likely to heighten the confrontation. We know from experience that we gain little ground. Often humour is the best antidote. It may require some wit on our part to respond lightly to their criticism or public behaviour, but usually another time will present itself to share with them how we were really feeling at the moment. Their respect for us will develop as they continue to see us model appropriate responses without using our weapons of power and authority.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Malachi 1:14 - 2:2, 8-10
The first reading is a call to return to the Lord in sincerity of heart.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 2:7-9, 13
St Paul expresses his thanks to early Christians because they have taken the gospel to heart.

Gospel: Matthew 23: 1-12
Some, not all, of the Jewish leaders wanted people to recognise them for the high position they held. They wanted to sit in the best seats at banquets and in the synagogues. They wanted people to make a fuss over them when they met, so they were certain to wear clothing and items that would distinguish their high position. Jesus assured these leaders that the only way they would truly be exalted would be to be humbled.

Children's Mass

The Children's Mass especially for children in second class preparing for their first Holy Communion has been organised by dedicated parents for over seven years in the parish. The children found this helpful and the parents were delighted to help them. During the past month too few parents are willing to help with the children's Mass. Furthermore huge numbers of very small children (under five years, many unaccompanied by parents) join the older children placing an intolerable burden on those trying to lead the liturgy and supervise the children. Reluctantly the children's Mass for 2nd class children will be once a month for the foreseeable future. Volunteers and helpers are needed to continue this effort.

Next Mass for children in second class who are preparing for their first Holy Communion will take place on Sunday 6th November, at 11.00 am in Church of Christ Our Light.

Autumn Dues

Envelopes are currently being distributed to homes throughout the parish of Ballincollig; contribution of the dues is for the support of the priests of the parish. Home Instead Senior Care

Home Instead Senior Care has launched a campaign called the 'The 40 - 70 Rule' which is designed to help adult children as well as their ageing parent's begin to address difficult issues with each other such as driving, finances, independence, end-of-life- issues, and even romance. Research has revealed nearly one-third of adult children have a major communications obstacle with their parents that stems from continuation of the parent-child role. In other words, it can be difficult to get the conversation going because the child is still in a child rather than an adult role with their parents. Talking sooner is better than waiting until a crisis has occurred. A free copy of the '40/70 & 70/40 Rules' is available from your local Home Instead Senior Care Office Tel: 021-50002190

LEARNING ABOUT THE MASS WITH KATH AND QUMEN WHO DOES WHAT AT MASS ?

At every Mass you will notice that some members of the assembly have different jobs. We call these jobs 'ministries'. Let's look at some of them:

THE PRIEST: At Mass the priest leads us and encourages us to play our part in the celebration. How does he do this? He:
Leads us in prayer

- Invites us to listen to God's word
- Helps us to understand and make sense of the Word of God in our daily lives through his homily
- Takes our gifts, the bread and wine, offers them to God and prays that by the power of the Holy Spirit they will become the body and blood of Jesus Christ.

THE SERVERS: Servers are normally boys and girls who have received their First Communion. Their job is to help the priest during Mass. They can carry books, bring water and wine, wash the priest's hands and ring bells.

MINISTER OF THE WORD: Even though we sometimes call this person the reader, the proper name is 'Minister of the Word'. The readings of Mass come from the Bible. They are the Word of God and so we can say that we hear God speaking to us through the voice of the Minister of the Word.
