Sunday 17-February-2013

First Sunday of Lent

As Lent begins we are reminded of Adam's fall from grace and of the reality of sin in human life, we are also reminded that Christ is the new Adam overcoming temptation in himself and so making possible a new life, a new humanity for those who belong to him.

Christ Our Light Innishmore

Our Lenten Journey

In today's Gospel we get a glimpse of Jesus' humanity as he struggles with temptation. He is led by the Spirit into the wilderness for forty days where he is tempted by the devil. The desert or wilderness was seen as a place of trial in which Jesus is forced to come face to face with himself and his identity. In trusting that God would give him the grace and strength to overcome the obstacles that stood in his way, he resists the temptations to be lead astray from the mission given to him by his Father. Today Jesus continues to walk in solidarity with all who are struggling. We pray that God will give us the grace and strength when temptations and obstacles come our way.

I remember as children, our first question for Lent was often, "What are you giving up for Lent?!" 'Giving up' something for these forty days is a custom that helped us enter into the season of Lent with a sense of purpose and a greater awareness. Lent isn't just about "giving up" something! Perhaps it can also be a time to reflect and to re-evaluate the quality and direction of our lives and to grow in our relationship with God and with those around us.

As we begin our Lenten Journey in preparation for Easter, let us pray that we too may be open to allowing the Spirit to lead us. The "wilderness" can refer to the times we experience trials in our own lives which may lead us to question our Faith. None of us like being in the 'wilderness' - it can be a lonely and painful place; a place of confusion and questioning; we may experience loss of purpose or direction in life. In our struggles and temptations, let us remember that Jesus was not left to battle them alone and neither are we. As St Paul says in our second reading today: 'everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved'. Jesus invites us to join him on the journey to Jerusalem during this Lent, uniting our own sufferings and struggles with his and to look forward with joy and hope to the celebration of his Resurrection. Let us pray for one another that during these days of Lent each of us will receive the grace of a deepening relationship with the Lord.

Reflection for Parents

What you can do for Lent with your children? Jesus' temptations are about power, power over people's hearts. If hungry people are to be fed, if society is going to change, he wants us to help, not by overwhelming force but by working humbly with him. Can we support our brothers and sisters who are hungry through small changes in our daily lives?. On Ash Wednesday we began our Lenten journey. As we gather together as a community today, we take time to step back from our often busy lives, to reflect on the Gospel and to pray for spiritual renewal.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

Because Jesus was tempted, he understands our temptations. Let us turn to him for the help we need to be victorious over evil.

Reader

For the Church that it may lead its members to deeper and more authentic living of the Christian life.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For government leaders: that they may resist the temptation to seek their own glory, and seek instead to serve their brothers and sisters.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who have fallen to temptation: that they may have the strength to rise again

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For each other and for ourselves: that Lent may teach us a spirit of self-denial, and move us to show more love and compassion to others

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who cannot afford the luxury of Lent: victims of war, of sickness, of drugs, of unspeakable grief or loneliness, those whose lives already hold more terror and pain that they can bear.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For a moment, we remember in silence our own particular needs.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

God of power and love, you have shown us that prayer, fasting, and alms-giving are remedies for sin. Accept our humble admission of guilt, and when our conscience weighs us down, let your unfailing mercy raise us up. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 26:4-10

The Israelite people gather during the Feast of Unleavened Bread to offer the first fruits of their harvest and retell the story of their salvation.

Second Reading: Romans 10:8-13

Paul sends this letter to the people of Rome to remind them of the simple formula for salvation; belief and confession. He promises that all those who call on the Lord will be saved.

Gospel: Luke 4:1-13

Each year, at the beginning of Lent, we hear the story of the devil tempting Jesus in the desert. This year we hear Luke's version. Following his baptism, Jesus went out into the desert for forty days during which time he ate nothing. Knowing that Jesus would be hungry, the devil tempted him to turn a stone into bread. When Jesus did not, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the earth, promising Jesus all the glory and power of them if Jesus would worship the devil. Again Jesus refused. Finally, Satan took Jesus to the top of the temple in Jerusalem and told him to jump because God's angels would save him. Jesus refused each of the three temptations by quoting scripture from the book of Deuteronomy thus making clear his obedience to God.

Care & Repair Free Odd-Job/DIY Service for Older People

Do you have a small repair job that you would like to have done? Age Action's Care & Repair service uses a pool of trustworthy volunteer handypersons to carry out minor repairs and odd jobs for older people who find it difficult to do these jobs themselves.

Some of the jobs that our volunteers can do include changing light bulbs, minor decorating, hanging curtains, minor gardening, minor carpentry and installing smoke alarms. The service is free; you only pay for the materials used. For bigger jobs that are beyond the scope of our volunteers, we maintain a register of reliable and honest tradespersons whose contact details we can provide. We can also arrange regular social visits to older people.

No job is too small, so call us today!!

All volunteers are Garda vetted and carry official Age Action identification cards. To arrange to have a job done for you, simply call 021-4536554 and we will arrange to have local volunteers contact you.

Age Action is Ireland's leading charity for older people. We believe that Ireland should be the best place in which to grow older. We work to fight discrimination, promote positive ageing and improve policies and services for all older people.

The Care & Repair programme is kindly sponsored by Irish Life Phone: 021-4536554
