The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

This feast is a reminder that God sent his son into the world to take on the human condition in all its weakness, a weakness symbolised by death. Through his triumph over death Christ offers us the way to the Father, the way to eternal life.

The Triumph of the Cross

"God loved the world so much that He gave his only Son, that we may have Eternal life." "For God sent his Son into the world that through Him the world might be saved." The life of Christ and His message is Gods' way of making his love and plans for us known. The human life of Jesus has one purpose that is to give each of us a glimpse of how much God is on my side and His plans for me of peace, life and happiness.

This October Pope Francis has called a synod of Bishops in Rome to reflect on the role of family and our understanding of family. Earlier this spring the parish council devoted some time to discussing and giving our views on the family. To help us in our discussion a questionnaire was provided by the Vatican. The contributions and comments from the parish council were forwarded to Bishop Buckley. Each diocese was asked to forward a report to the Vatican to help the bishops of the world in their deliberations, (hopefully diocesan office will forward a copy of this report to each parish in the near future).

Recently I came across an article by Eleanor Cunney. She used the example of a stone mason building a wall. He picks a stone from the ground and uses it regardless of its shape and size. He finds a place for the stone even when it is odd, misshapen or uneven. The wall he is creating is full of gaps and spaces; it is these that give the wall its beauty and strength. Her understanding of church is similar. Like the wall it needs to find a place for all comers no matter what the differences. Together we form a unit proclaiming a common belief but drawing strength from the diversity of the individuals within it. As Kahlil Gibran put it "there must be paces in our togetherness."

Thought for Today

At the time Jesus was crucified, the cross was a shameful piece of wood. But, we understand it completely differently today. It is a powerful symbol of God's love for us and a reminder that no matter how difficult our journey is, there is hope for us. We can't fully understand, nor could the disciples, what Jesus has gone to prepare for us, but our strength lies in our trust that he has.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

We turn in prayer to the God who forgives all our guilt and crowns us with love and compassion.

Reader

For all Christians: that we may give an example to the world of the art of forgiveness.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

The Cross is a sign of Christ's love for us, may the Cross of Christ be a sign of hope for us.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for all of those carrying heavy crosses, may the Lord help us to support them.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For each other: that we may have the humility and courage to seek forgiveness of those we have offended.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For sports men and women, during this All-Ireland month, that their example may build harmony in our land.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For a moment, we remember in silence our own particular needs.

Lord, Hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

All powerful God, grant that we who stand always in need of your mercy, and who love to receive it, may be ready to show mercy to other. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Never forget the deeds of the Lord.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Num. 21:4-9

The people in the desert were losing hope. We know the feeling! Disillusionment, worry, loneliness and sorrow can wear us down. In the light of Christ's cross, we find hope that is stronger than any suffering. Jesus gave himself without limit to his Father, who raised him high. The meaning of our suffering is to share in his journey to the glory of his Father.

Second Reading: Phil. 2:6-11

The state of Jesus was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave.

Gospel: John 3: 13-17

The feast of The Triumph Of The Cross is celebrated each year since 335 when a church was first dedicated on the site of the crucifixion in Jerusalem. Jesus died between two men. One of them said to the other. 'We are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. (Lk 23; 41.) Jesus lived his dying completely for others. The total exhaustion of his body, the abandonment of his friends, even of his God all became the gift of himself. As he hung dying in complete powerlessness, nailed to the wood of a tree, there was no bitterness, no desire for revenge or resentment. Nothing to cling to; all to give. " Unless the grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains only a single grain, but if it dies it yields a rich harvest. " (Jn 12; 24). Jesus the innocent one died and death became a gateway to life.

Jesus on the Cross lived with the greatest poverty as his cry from the heart reminds us of " My God, my God, why have you forsaken me ". He, who came from God us to God, suffered the deepest anguish a human being can suffer, the anguish of being left alone, rejected, forgotten, abandoned by the one who is the source of all life. Every human being needs to be loved, cared and treated with dignity. Parents have the privilege of providing love and affection for their children but each of us Christians face a daily calling to become more aware of the love and affection of God for us and to reflect that love in our dealings and living with others.

Cork Prison Visitors Centre
Volunteers required!

Volunteering with St. Nicholas Trust involves supporting the families of prisoners when they come to Cork Prison for a visit (families can be waiting up to 30 minutes before going in). You will be assisting with hospitality i.e.. making tea/coffee, spending time talking/listening to the families with a sense of awareness/sensitivity while they wait.

Baptism Preparation

The next Baptism preparation will take place on Saturday 20th September at 12.00 noon in the Library Room, Community Hall, Station Road. The presentation lasts for approximately forty minutes. The following questions are addressed, What is Baptism? What are the symbols used in the Sacrament of Baptism? How can the family become involved in the ceremony? Parents might book the baptism a few weeks in advance to give ample time to take part in the preparation.

Mass Diaries

Mass Diaries to book Mass intentions for October, November & December are open in both churches.

Trocaire

Trocaire thanks you most sincerely for your generosity in supporting the organisation's work with the people affected by conflict in the Middle East. Trocaire echoes the call of Pope Francis for your prayer for Christians and all other populations that are suffering at the present time, and for dialogue and reconciliation as the basis for peace. We remember especially people affected by conflict in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Israel.

Coeliac Host

Coeliac Host available at all Masses in both churches. Generally the Priest celebrating the Mass has the Coeliac Host. To help the Celebrant you might please let him know before the Mass.

Fr. George

Novena

Recipe for Living

*Life may not be a piece of cake
When we haven't the dough to rise!
But it will never be as flat as a pancake,
If we remember to add a spoonful of sugar
to sweeten our desserts*

New School Term

Teachers and pupils are back in full swing in the various schools. Preparation for the sacraments of First confession and Holy Communion, and Confirmation are already underway. Parents of all those preparing for sacraments will be invited to meetings shortly. These meetings try to encourage parents and families to be actively involved in the work of preparation for sacraments. Also well done to students for the results achieved in the Junior Cert.

Christ Our Light

The roof of Christ Our Light church has for many years failed to keep out the water. Various efforts were made to repair the roof with little success. Rain and water seeps through the roof in several areas. I have decided to address the issue and the slates, felt and roof will be replaced. Work will begin shortly. This is a big job, removing old slates and felt and then replacing same. Mass on week mornings will take place in 5t Mark's centre courtesy of the Neo Catecummenate community. The total cost will amount to €120,000.00. There will be an estimated 14,000.00 slates put on the roof. To help defray some of the cost I am inviting parishioners to sponsor a slate at €5.00 each. An opportunity will be provided next week to sponsor a slate. Looking forward to your support.

Fr George
