The Body And Blood Of Christ

(Corpus Christi)

*The sacrifice of Christ re-united us with Christ, once for all.
Every time we celebrate the Lord's Supper and receive his body and blood then through him our union with God is renewed.*

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ

There is a Hill near Cape Town in South Africa, just below the famous Table Mountain, every day at noon a gun is fired from that mountain. The firing of the gun once served a special purpose. The gun fire signalled that a ship on its way to or from India had arrived in the harbour with a cargo of goods and was in need of food and fresh water. An exchange resulted and there was giving and receiving.

That was a long time ago, the purpose no longer exists. Most local people ignore the firing of the gun, visitors are told not to worry to ignore it when they hear the big bang, however most local people know the story behind it.

The Eucharist celebrates a wonderful event – the gift Jesus made of his life on our behalf. Every time we celebrate the Eucharist we remember Jesus and tell the story again. Like any event that is repeated there is a danger that routine takes over.

In the Eucharist Jesus gives us himself as the Bread of life, this is a two way street we are asked to give something in return, not to Him but to others. The Eucharist is at the heart of our faith and can never be separated from the washing of the feet by Jesus.

For the Hebrews, remembering is more than recalling. It is the making present to each generation the saving events of the life, death and resurrection of Christ. May communion with Jesus help us to be in communion with others.

Reflection for Parents

How many meals do we prepare not knowing exactly who will eat them? As the dynamics of our families change, there may be a few more or a few less at each meal. Sometimes we invite friends or neighbours at the last minute to join us for dinner, or our children may ask if "Johnny can stay for dinner!" We can be creative stretching a meal to feed a few more or have some really great leftovers for the next day's lunch! However they turn out, our meals are opportunities for sharing love--by our efforts in preparation, with those who gather at the table, and the conversation we share as we eat. Mealtime is important for all families, and we need to make every effort to help them become sacred moments of the day. Today as we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, we give thanks for the gift of the Eucharist which unites us to the body of Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

Gathered in love around the table of the Lord, we lay before him our own needs and the needs of the community.

Reader

For the Church: that it may be a sign of unity and an instrument of peace in a world torn asunder by war and divisions.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For government leaders: that God may grant them the gifts of unity, love, and peace.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For the sick, the lonely, and the unloved: that in their pain they may know God's comforting.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For this congregation: that as we meet around the Lord's Table, he may strengthen our unity and deepen our faith.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For our departed relatives and friends, who partook of the Eucharist: That they may now enjoy the banquet of eternal life in heaven.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For a moment, we remember in silence our own particular needs.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

Heavenly Father, may our celebration of Christ's farewell meal of love mould us into a caring community. We ask this through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

Prayer for Strength

Every day I need you, Lord, but today especially, I need some extra strength to face whatever is to come.

This day, more than any other day, I need to feel you near me to strengthen my courage and to overcome my fear.

By myself I cannot meet the challenge of the hour. We are frail human creatures and we need a Higher Power to sustain us in all that life may bring.

And so, dear Lord, hold my trembling hand. Be with me, Lord, this day and stretch out your powerful arm to help me. May your love be upon me as I place all my hope in you. Amen.

Blessed Pope John XXIII

on Station Road at 10 am.Everyone welcome as it is an ideal opportunity to get and know people from our community.Experiencing Grief and Loss

At some point in life, everyone loses someone they feel especially close to - a parent, a spouse, a child, a dear friend. Over the past few weeks I have touched very briefly on the different stages of grief that one may experience following the death of a loved one or any other significant 'loss' in one's life. When a loved one dies, we also lose the part of our lifestyle that included the deceased. So while we are grieving for our loved one, we are also grieving for the parts of our life that will never be the same. Some people try to avoid the pain of grieving by keeping busy. While some people prefer to grieve in private, others find talking and sharing their feelings with someone is helpful. The stress of grief can take its toll on your mind and body, so continuing to meet your emotional and physical needs is important. Initially, it is common to experience a lack of concentration and changes in eating and sleeping patterns. This usually resolves itself after a while. If possible, try to maintain a normal routine. Keep up your regular activities, getting enough sleep or at least enough rest. Maintain a healthy, balanced diet. Be patient with yourself, it will take time and some days will be easier than others. Healing happens gradually; it can't be forced or hurried. "God of healing, you guided me in the past; give me the strength to meet each day with hope".
