

THE BALLINCOLLIG PARISHIONER

Sunday 10-April-2016

Third Sunday of Easter

Peter, who denied the Lord three times, three times, affirms his love. He learns that his share in the Lord's care for his people will one day bring him to the martyrdom of death - the early Church was founded on those who joyfully bore witness with their lives.

Follow Me

This morning the reading from the Acts of the Apostles gives an insight into the struggles and risks that were part of life for the early believers. "The High priest demanded an explanation; we gave you a formal warning not to preach in His name and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with this teaching; You seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us." However Peter and his friends stood their ground and said "obedience to God comes first." Peter and the disciples had a conviction that it was the God of their ancestors that raised Jesus from the dead. They went further and announced that they were glad to have the opportunity to suffer humiliation for the sake of Christ. Following Christ and living the gospel is always demanding. Give us some of the courage of Peter to walk with the Lord. May the Holy Spirit give us strength and wisdom to be witnesses to the presence of the love of God in our world.

The gospel passage is one of the great conversations between Christ and Peter. It is said of Stalin that if you were to make one mistake it was like mishandling a detonator – it was the last one you made. Sometimes we too can write people off because of one negative experience. Peter had a bad day when Christ needed the support of all his friends. Peter the leader of the group was cowardly, told lies and abandoned the Christ when he needed some support. Some days after the resurrection Jesus took the initiative; after breakfast he asked Peter "Do you love me" Peter replied "Lord you know I love you." Then Jesus went on to say to Peter "feed my lambs and feed my sheep." Jesus saw beyond the public failings of Peter and acknowledged his goodness. Peter is called to love and serve his brothers and sisters in the Christian community. Like Peter each of us is called to love and care for one another. We are also called to look beyond the stumbles of others and try to see their goodness.

Reflection for Parents

As parents we know a great deal about caring for sheep in the flock. We work long, hard, and diligently to make sure that our children receive the physical, emotional, and spiritual care they require. We are challenged by this Gospel reading to move outside our immediate "flock" and care for all of God's children. Our own children will learn the essence of this Gospel when they see us reconcile with others and go outside our small worlds to help others. Today, as we continue to celebrate Easter, we praise the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus. We worship the lamb who deserves praise, honour, glory and power for ever and ever.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

Let us pray to God, who through the resurrection of his Son, strengthens us in hope and love.

Reader

That Church leaders may be devoted to the welfare of their brothers and sisters in the community.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That the Lord may direct and bless the work of his disciples today just as, under the direction of Jesus, disciples made a great catch of fish.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That the Lord may direct and bless the work of our political and civil leaders.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That we may find joy in serving others, remembering that the lord prepared food for his disciples.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That we may be kind and forgiving toward all those who disappoint or fail us, just as the Lord has been kind to us.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who are suffering the effects of war, famine and persecution in particular the people of Aleppo.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

Father, our source of life, you know our weakness. May we reach out with joy to grasp the hand you extend to us in Christ, so that we may walk more readily in your ways. We ask this through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32. 40-41
 Peter and the apostles continue to preach Jesus, even though the High Priest challenges them.

Second Reading: Apoc. 5:11-14
 The risen Jesus is portrayed as Lamb of God enthroned in heaven.

Gospel: John 21:1-19.
 For the third time since his resurrection, Jesus appeared to the disciples. It seems that the disciples had returned to their former lives--those they had lived before they left to follow Jesus--because they were fishing in the Sea of Galilee. Jesus stood on the shore and called out to the men in the boat asking if they had caught anything. The disciples replied that they had caught nothing. Jesus then instructed them to cast their net on the right side of the boat. When they did, they had a huge catch of 153 fish. They knew from this sign that it was Jesus on the shore. When they came ashore, Jesus cooked their breakfast of fish. When they finished eating, Jesus asked Peter three times if Peter loved him. This was a great example of reconciliation because the opportunities for Peter to affirm his love of Jesus matched the same number of times he denied knowing him. It was then that Jesus commissioned Peter to care for the sheep in Jesus' flock.

Follow the SunSmart Code

Getting too much sun can be harmful whatever your age. You probably protect your skin when on holidays abroad or on really hot sunny days at home. But that isn't enough. Get into the habit of protecting your skin every day from April to September, whatever the weather. The 5 steps of the Irish Cancer Society's SunSmart code is an effective way to protect you from UV damage:

1. Slop on sunscreen. The best sunscreens protect against UV-B rays and UV-A rays. The Irish Cancer Society advises that adults use sunscreen with SPF 15 or higher (SPF 30 or higher for children). What to think about when choosing and using sunscreen
 - Apply to dry skin 20-30 mins before going outside.
 - Be extra careful of those areas that do not get much exposure as they tend to burn more easily.
 - Reapply every two hours
 - Choose a water resistant type if sweating or you are involved in water sports
2. Slip on sun protective clothing and slap on a hat. One of the simplest things you can do to protect your skin from UV rays is to cover it with clothes. Choose clothes that cover as much skin as possible and ensure hats gives shade to the face, neck, head and ears.
3. Seek shade. UV rays are usually at their strongest between 11am and 3pm. Plan your day so that you know you will be able to go into the shade as much as possible between those times.
4. Wear sunglasses and check the label to ensure they give UV protection.
5. Check the UV index. When the UV Index is 3 or more you are at greater risk of skin damage that can lead to skin cancer. Get into the habit of checking the UV Index as a reminder of the need to be SunSmart. Check out the UV index at: <http://www.cancer.ie/reduceyour-risk/sunsmart/uv-index>. Further information on SunSmart can be found on www.cancer.ie

Easter 1916 in Cork

Order, Counter-Order and Disorder

Most of the action in relation to the 1916 Rising occurred in Dublin. What happened in Cork at this time? Did the Irish Volunteers in Cork contribute to the Easter Rising? What roles did Terence MacSwiney and Tomás MacCurtain play in Cork? Gerry White, co-author of Baptised in Blood, the story of the Cork Brigade of the Irish Volunteers, will answer these and other questions in a lecture on 'Easter 1916 in Cork - Order, Counter-Order and Disorder'. The lecture, organised by Muskerry Local History Society, will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club on Monday, 18 April, at 8.00 pm.

A thought for today

Perhaps the most radical statement Jesus ever made is "Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate".

Marriage Encounter

Is a worldwide Catholic voluntary organization that presents the Marriage Encounter Weekend in more than 90 countries. Presented by three married couples and a priest, the weekend is a residential workshop that offers married couples with a good relationship the opportunity to explore, renew and enrich what they already have going for them in a way that completely respects their privacy. It is very much about spouses being in a unique sacramental relationship that involves not only them but also God, their family and the wider community of the Church. In his Wednesday catechesis of 2nd April 2014, Pope Francis said: Marriage is the icon of God's love for us. Our next Marriage Encounter Weekend will be from 15th -17th April 2016 (8:00 pm Friday to 4:30 pm Sunday) at the Cork International Hotel. Details of our weekends and lots more information is provided on our website www.marriageencounter.ie or phone Ph.086-8334382 / 087-2162436
